Dressing For Success in the Washington, DC

with

Susan Dyes Gormley
NORDSTROM

Susan Dyes Gormley, a personal stylist at Nordstrom specializing in Washington DC-area professionals, will share her recommendations for managing the wardrobe challenges of the sometimes complex Washington DC business culture, where buttoned-down law firms coexist down the hall from more casual office environments. Ms. Gormley has more than 20 years of experience delivering personal advice on how to dress, including professional, social, and TV-appropriate wardrobes.

Bring your lunch and join us in this session that will address professional dressing in the DC market; adapting your personal style to different business environments conservative, "business casual," etc.); maintaining professional decorum on "casual Friday"; and dressing for receptions, gala events and other out-of-office business activities.
